

National Certificate: Farming Work-Readiness Learning Programme

Purpose and Outcomes of the Learning Programme

- Fundamental skills in communication and mathematical literacy in agricultural sector
- Skills in working with basic communication and information technology systems in the workplace
- Core skills in measurement, use of common tools, farming tools and instruments and an understanding of the science and technology which underpins these activities.
- Safety, health, environmental and quality issues related to the specific agricultural context.
- Understanding and working with the policies, rules and procedures related to the specific work context, contracts, BCE and the relationship between the employer and the employee on farms.

Learning assumed to be in place and recognition of prior learning

The credits for this qualification assume that learners have demonstrated communication and numeracy competency at ABET level 3.

Learning Programme Modules

Module 1: Communication on Farms (23 credits)

Module 2: Societal and Financial Life Skills (12 credits)

Module 3: Numeracy and Understanding Maths on Farms (18 credits)

Module 4: Select, Use and Care for Hand Tools and Basic Farm Equipment (12 credits)

Module 5: Career Planning (5 credits)

Module 6: Understanding Business (5 credits)

Module 7: The Concept of Production (12 credits)

Module 8: Understanding Natural Science (15 credits)

Module 9: Understanding Technology (15 credits)

Module 10: The Work Environment Rules and Conditions (15 credits)

The National Certificate: Farming Work-Readiness Learning Programme is based on SAQA QUAL ID: 23253 (Min 124 Credits) / Registered Learnership with Dept. Labour

Practical Competence through Skills Development